

NICOLE JOHNSON-REECE

VICE PRESIDENT, DIVERSITY, ARAMARK

Nicole Johnson-Reece was named Vice President, Diversity for ARAMARK in December, 2006. In this role Nicole is responsible for providing effective leadership in the continued development and coordination of ARAMARK's Global Diversity and Inclusion strategy.

Nicole brings almost 20 years of experience in finance, consumer marketing, brand strategy and human resources. Prior to joining the ARAMARK team Nicole held the position of vice president of diversity with the Cendant Hospitality Group from 1999 to 2006. In this role, Nicole was responsible for the development of a best-in-class holistic global diversity and inclusion strategy.

Previously, she served as international marketing manager for AT&T's Sub-Saharan Africa and Caribbean regions as well as other marketing and management positions from 1989 to 1997.

Nicole serves on the board of the Philadelphia Multicultural Affairs Congress, the National African-American Women's Leadership Institute and the Advisory Committee of the Philadelphia branch of Dress for Success. She was recently named as one of the Top Blacks in Corporate America by Black Professionals magazine.

Nicole has a Bachelors of Science in Economics from Rutgers University. She is also the proud mother of Sierra and Bryce and has been married to her husband Tony for 15 years.
